

Monthly Zoom Video Gatherings

September

Topic: What are we doing? Introduction of participants and NACMS staff. Review reading materials and syllabus. Share possible project ideas.

Objective: By the end of this meeting the participants will discover the purpose and expectations of this program and identify the persons and resources available to them from NACMS.

October

Topic: Review/discuss required reading. Begin discussion on topic.

Objective: By the end of the meeting participants will have a clearer understanding of the topic

November

Speaker: Guest Marianist Scholar

Objective: By the end of this meeting the participants will have a deeper understanding of the topic.

December

Speaker: Guest speaker to present on the importance of the topic today.

Objective: By the end of this meeting we will be able to give examples the topic in our world today.

January

Topic: Summarize and synthesize the reading and presentations.

Objective: By the end of this meeting the participants will be able to identify the characteristics, trends, and gift of the topic.

February

Topic: Guest panelists

Objective: By the end of this gathering panelists see what this topic looks like in action.

March

Topic: Peer Review

Objective: By the end of this gathering each participant will have evaluated each other's proposals and applied any constructive criticism on their topic.

April

Topic: Standards and practices for NACMS publication/video/audio/youtube

Objective: By the end of this meeting participants will be able to express their choice of mode for publishing their research and understand NACMS expectations.

May

Topic: One-on-one conference with NACMS staff member to firm up research project (will schedule as available)

Objective: By the end of these conferences, participants will have the knowledge and support needed to move forward with their research project.

June or July

MSP 2.0 Workshop

Topic: Intense research at NACMS with support of NACMS staff and MSP 2.0 community. Participants will have the opportunity to engage in gatherings with members and communities in the Marianist Family.

Objective: At the end of this gathering participants will finalize their project incorporating peer and self-evaluations. Summer will be time for completion of projects. All participants will be able to contact NACMS staff or other members of scholarly community for any support or review of their projects.

August

Topic: Project completion date

Objective: The NACMS staff will review completed projects and determine how they will be presented to the Marianist world.